This is a book of devotions, which were written to encourage people. They were written by Joan from her experiences of how to let go of negative thoughts and how to let God be the guide in her life. Being a Sunday School teacher gave the opportunity to learn much about the Bible. Joan didn't have the privilege of going to college, but went through many of God's "schools of knowledge." Psalm 139 has become Joan's favorite chapter in the Bible. It tells how well God knows each of us, how great and powerful he is, and the fact that God created each of us just how he wanted us to be. Therefore, no one should hate who they are; they are made in God's image. Joan's prayer for everyone who reads this book is for them to grow into a closer relationship with our loving Maker.

Both compellingly and clearly, Patrick D. Miller introduces biblical prayer in all its varied forms and from different angles: the prayers of Israel's neighbors, the names of God in prayer, prayers for help, the response of God, praise, the prayers of women, confession and penitence, prayers for others, blessing and curse, and Jesus and Paul at prayer. The perspective throughout is that of faith—and its relation to prayer and theology. The result is a book of importance for church members, students, scholars, and others.

In Giving Thanks to God, the fifth study in the Jesus Calling® Bible Study Series, you will explore what God's Word has to say about the many ways He provides for you—and why you should give thanks to Him for this abundance. Even when you are going through trials, you can have an attitude of thankfulness, for the Bible says that you have been given "every spiritual blessing in Christ" (Ephesians 1:3). When you realize the depth of God's love and the lengths He went to reconcile you to Himself, it naturally causes you to want to praise Him! Each of the Jesus Calling® Bible studies includes devotional readings from Jesus Calling®, selected passages of Scripture for reflection, Bible study questions, and additional questions to help you apply the material. This study can be used for personal reflection and Bible study or in a small-group setting.
