Known since 1971 as the "Red Book," The Directory of Executive Recruiters has been called "the bible" of the industry by CNBC and Sylvia Porter. It is the largest continuously updated recruiter database in the world. This jumbo hardcover edition is specially designed to help corporate buyers of search services make informed decisions on which recruiting firm would best suit their hiring needs. It is also useful to search providers for competitive intelligence, acquisitions, and partnerships. The Directory lists over 8,000 offices of 5,700 search firms in the U.S., Canada and Mexico and contain detailed information on each firm: street addresses, phone numbers, fax numbers, e-mail and web addresses, plus function and industry specialties. It is comprehensively indexed by function, industry, specialty and geographic location. The unique specialty index has 565 niche categories with the names and company affiliations of over 14,000 recruiters. In addition, the Corporate Edition reports firm revenues, number of recruiters and year founded and lists full contact information for international branch offices. It also contains a key contact index. Introductory pages give expert advice to corporate hirers on choosing and using executive search firms. "The Directory of Executive Recruiters is one of the most popular reference books in libraries nationwide." -- Lynne M Oliver, Reference Librarian, Morris County (NJ) Library.

Whether an executive is seeking a position at a microbrewery or SAP software consulting firm, The Directory of Executive Recruiters has the contacts who can make or break a job search. Known to insiders since 1971 as the Red Book, the 2003 edition contains detailed information on over 14,700 recruiters at more than 7,800 offices in North America.

Offers advice for candidates and clients, and lists both retainer and contingency recruiting firms

The paperback edition of The Directory of Executive Recruiters is a quick but thorough reference for career changers and job-seekers to contact search firms that match their areas of expertise. Using the same database as the Corporate Edition above, it concentrates on North American firms. Internal information such as firm revenues, number of recruiters, etc., is not included. Introductory material helps guide job-seeker expectations with strategies for using recruiters as part of overall career management. "Anyone looking to turn headhunters' heads should have a copy of the Directory." --William Flanagan, Senior Editor, Forbes

Offers advice for candidates and clients, and lists both retainer and contingency recruiting firms

This multi-volume set is a primary source for basic company and industry information. Names, addresses, SIC code, and geographic location of over 135,000 U.S. companies are included.
