Quotes by Tomi Ungerer "If I write a book I do it mostly for myself for the child in me and for the adult in me. The criterion for my children's books is: If I were a child would I like it That's very egotistical but it's the same thing with my books for adults. I wouldn't do a book if I didn't want to partake and share.

Tomi Ungerer wrote brilliant childrens` books, and they were favourites with my children in the 70`s, so I was really pleased to see this in print. Wonderful illustrations, simple but rich text, full of depth and humour. My 4 yr old grandson loves this book, and without prompting went off to make letter and number shapes with his rubber snake.
