Clarke first developed the idea for Jonathan Strange & Mr Norrell during a year spent teaching English in Bilbao, Spain: "I had a kind of waking dream ... about a man in 18th-century clothes in a place rather like Venice, talking to some English tourists. And I felt strongly that he had some sort of magical background — he'd been dabbling in magic, and something had gone badly wrong."

Jonathan Strange was the second magician of the Revival of English Magic. He was the pupil of Gilbert Norrell, who, along with Strange, restored the practice of English magic after an absence of more than two centuries. As a young magician, he performed numerous feats, including the summoning of Maria Absalom, various services for the Army during the war with Napoleon, and the defense of the King against a fairy kidnap attempt.
