Main Currents of Marxism: The Founders—The Golden Age—

"Main Currents" is comprised of three parts - "The Founders", "The Golden Age" and "The Breakdown". The first part looks at both the antecedents in Kant, Hegel, as well as the main protagonists - Marx and Engels. In some places, it is heavy going but if the reader can stick with it, the insights into philosophy underpinning Marxism are worthwhile.

Main Currents of Marxism: The Founders v. 1: Its Rise—

One aim of Main Currents is to show precisely how the doctrine propounded by Marx was taken up and interpreted by Lenin and Stalin, and how this interpretation came to fit the system they created. The question of whether this is " true " or " false " Marxism is an uninteresting one; what is important is that both Lenin and Stalin believed their views followed logically from those of Marx and were able to establish a powerful and violent state on that basis.
