From the former New York Times Op-Ed page editor, a definitive and entertaining resource for writers of every stripe on the neglected art of persuasion. In the tradition of The Elements of Style comes Trish Hall’s essential new work on writing well—a sparkling instructional guide to persuading (almost) anyone, on (nearly) anything. As the person in charge of the Op-Ed page for the New York Times, Hall spent years immersed in argument, passion, and trendsetting ideas—but also in tangled sentences, migraine-inducing jargon, and dull-as-dishwater writing. Drawing on her vast experience editing everyone from Nobel Prize winners and global strongmen (Putin) to first-time pundits (Angelina Jolie), Hall presents the ultimate guide to writing persuasively for students, job applicants, and rookie authors looking to get published. She sets out the core principles for connecting with readers—laid out in illuminating chapters such as “Cultivate Empathy,” “Abandon Jargon,” and “Prune Ruthlessly.” Combining boisterous

In The Art of Rhetoric, Aristotle demonstrates the purpose of rhetoric—the ability to convince people using your skill as a speaker rather than the validity or logic of your arguments—and outlines its many forms and techniques. Defining important philosophical terms like ethos, pathos, and logos, Aristotle establishes the earliest foundations of modern understanding of rhetoric, while providing insight into its historic role in ancient Greek culture. Aristotle’s work, which dates from the fourth century B.C., was written while the author lived in Athens, remains one of the most influential pillars of philosophy and has been studied for centuries by orators, public figures, and politicians alike. Advanced Legal Writing: Theories and Strategies in Persuasive Writing is exceptionally well suited for use in upper level Legal Writing courses that focus on strategy. The author's distinctive approach: - emphasizes persuasive writing strategies and explores specific techniques for legal writers - combines theory with practicality by taking an interdisciplinary approach - avoids a "documents-based" approach, going beyond the trial or appellate brief to identify effective strategies for a broad range of documents and settings - follows a consistent format, offering for each writing strategy: - an explanation of its nature and characteristics - an account of the theoretical principles that explain their effectiveness - detailed "how-to" guidelines for students to use in their own writing - numerous examples of proper use of the strategy and exercises - consideration of ethical implications - a thorough Teacher's Manual. The book is divided into five main parts that cover: - literary references and their value in persuasive writing - the three basic processes of persuasion: logic and rational argument, emotional argument, and establishing credibility - rhetorical style - persuasive writing strategies based on psychology theory - the ethics and morality of persuasion. Be sure to review Advanced Legal Writing: Theories and Strategies in Persuasive Writing before you make an adoption decision for your course.
