Song of the Fairy Queen. A spectacular book in which very much is brought together. Adventure, love, loyalty and trust, battle, betrayal and the worst that people can bring up, all forged into a story that made it hard to put the book down even when my eyelids demanded it.

With over 500 pages and for a very reasonable price of 5 dollars, 'Song of the Fairy Queen' was beautifully written, had a smooth flowing theme with well developed plots and sub plots and few typos. I would have been well pleased if it had been further developed to the Trilogy stage as my enjoyment would have run to a couple of weeks at least.

And I serve the Fairy Queen,
To dew her orbs upon the green;
The cowslips tall her pensioners be;
In their gold coats spots you see;
Those be rubies, fairy favours;
In those freckles live their savours;
I must go seek some dewdrops here,
And hang a pearl in every cowslip's ear.
