This spiritually significant work is a profound series of dialogues between one of the great sages of our time and his inquirers. These "Talks" offer a genuinely universal approach to Truth, by directly pointing to the certainty of our essential nature. By applying even a few of these passages to our life, we can become aware of the ever-present, abiding Reality. Through the wise words of this beloved sage, we are clearly and consistently shown how to reclaim our innate Freedom--simply by looking in the right place and discovering what has always been present. A fundamental shift of attention is all that is required. By approaching these dialogues in the spirit of inquiry, one has the opportunity to awaken to a greater Reality: that of our own Being, our true Self.

Talks covered the period during 1935-1939.

First published in the year 1955 this book became so popular that it had to be reprinted ten times. People from all walks of life and of all faiths used to visit Sri Ramana Maharshi and ask questions covering every aspect of the spiritual search and every problem troubling the human mind. Maharshi's answers gently led the questioner to the correct solution, each question
