Think about it!

How could a

such pinnacles
of success?

Well, H-D had a
little help
along the way
with two main
sociological factors: 1. The post World War
II baby boom,
the aging bulge
in American
demographics
looking for

adventure and
whatever (safely) came their way. 2. A generation that
worked hard;
raised families
and then looked
back at what they had missed
in their youth.
Harley-Davidson
embodied the
freedom and

adventure they lacked. Harley-Davidson was granted two decades, in which to plan a
lasting and
viable future.
It sought to be
the motorcycle
of mainstream
America. The
world would follow. This

venerable
company almost
pulled it off.

The Motor
Company updated
technology both
in their
manufacturing
venue and in the
product itself.
H-D balanced on
a near-
impossible
fulcrum,

successor, the

in 1999 with great success. H-

prevent dark clouds from appearing on the horizon: 1.

Inexorably, the post World War II baby boom's bulge has grown older, losing interest in reclaiming youth with interests shifting elsewhere. Who is to take over

this downsizing
market? Who will be left to support the Motor Company in
the style it has become accustomed? 2.

In my humble
opinion, the
masters of
marketing did
not fill the

coming void of consumers. I think H-D is
good at pretty
much everything
except lowering
prices for the

generations. Nor have they
developed
affordable and
desirable

Certainly, the Factory began to
enjoy economies
of scale in manufacturing. I
for one do not

used their
profits wisely
for continued
prosperity. Will
