~~The Model Rules of Professional Conduct provides an up-to-date resource for information on legal ethics. Federal, state and local courts in all Jurisdictions look to the Rules for guidance in solving lawyer malpractice cases, disciplinary actions, disqualification issues, sanctions questions and much more. In this volume, black-letter Rules of Professional Conduct are followed by numbered Comments that explain each Rule's purpose and provide suggestions for its practical application. The Rules will help you identify proper conduct in a variety of given situations, review those instances where discretionary action is possible, and define the nature of the relationship between you and your clients, colleagues and the courts.~~

~~This book is the first to describe a new type of marketing: namely, the marketing of works. This is the line of marketing activity that provides search and receiving orders to meet the effective demand of customers for the manufacture, repair, modernization, re-equipment, or liquidation of the customer ' s facilities with a change in their market value and without transferring ownership to these objects from the customer to the executor of works. The book will show the reader that works are a type of production activity that changes the market value of the objects being processed as opposed to the services, and provides definitions of concepts at the end of each chapter. It will serve to provide marketing theorists with many opportunities for research that will enable them to make their own scientific discoveries and acquire new scientific results.~~
